

Shepard Forman

Home:

225 West 86th Street
New York, NY 10024
Phone: (212) 874-7818

Office:

Center on International Cooperation
418 Lafayette Street, Suite 543
New York, NY 10003-6680
Phone: (212) 998-3680

Employment

Center on International Cooperation, New York University

Founder and Director (see attached description of Center). 1996-present

The Ford Foundation

Director, International Affairs programs, New York. Redesigned and built a $25 million annual grantmaking program of research, policy analysis and public education on post-Cold War international relations. Supervised 20 program and support staff in the fields of peacekeeping and disarmament, international law, international economics and development, and U.S. foreign policy. Primary responsibility for Foundation programs in Russia and Eastern Europe. 1991-96

Director, Human Rights and Governance programs, New York. Designed and implemented grantmaking program to help strengthen state and local governance and public policy initiatives, and to assist major domestic civil rights and international human rights organizations. Supervised 22 program and support staff and a $40 million budget. 1981-91

Program Officer, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Developed and coordinated a grantmaking program in economics and the social sciences to universities and research institutes, as well as activities in community economic and rural development. (On leave from the University of Michigan). 1977-80

The University of Michigan, Ann Arbor

Associate Professor, Department of Anthropology; chairman, departmental admissions committee. 1973-80

The University of Chicago

Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology and Social Sciences, Graduate Faculties and Collegiate Division. 1969-73

Indiana University, Bloomington

Assistant Professor, Department of Anthropology

Education

Postdoctoral Fellow in Development Economics, University of Sussex, Institute of Development Studies, Brighton, England (1969-70).

Ph.D., Department of Anthropology; Fellow, Institute of Latin American Studies, Columbia University (1962-66).

Fullbright Fellow in history and anthropology, Universidade do Brasil (Rio de Janeiro and Bahia) (1961-62).

M.A. in History; Brazilian Studies, New York University (1959-61).

B.A., Major in Spanish Language and Literature, Brandeis University (1955-59).

Professional Activities

Member, Council on Foreign Relations; International Advisory Board, Center for American Studies, Candido Mendes University, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil; International Advisory Board, Wagner School of Public Service; Scientific Council of the International Journal of Political Studies; International Advisory Board, Center for Global Studies, University of Victoria; World Bank Review Committee, East Timor Transitional Support Strategy; National Steering Committee, Fulbright Program at 50 (1997). Chair, American Anthropological Association Panel on Disorders of Industrial Societies (1990-92).

Publications:

Books

Multilateralism and U.S. Foreign Policy: Ambivalent Engagement. Lynne Rienner Publishers (2001). Co-editor with Stewart Patrick.

Good Intentions: Pledges of Aid for PostConflict Recovery. Lynne Rienner Publishers (2000). Co-editor with Stewart Patrick.

Promoting Reproductive Health – Investing in Health for Development. Lynne Rienner Publishers (1999). Co-editor with Romita Ghosh.

Diagnosing America: Anthropology and Public Engagement. University of Michigan Press, Ann Arbor, Michigan (1994).

The Brazilian Peasantry. Columbia University Press (1975); translated into Portuguese as Brasil: Camponese e Participação. Rio de Janeiro: Editora Paz e Terra (1979).

The Raft Fisherman: Tradition and Change in the Brazilian Peasant Economy. Indiana University Press (1970).

Articles and Reviews

New York Times Book Review, Journal of Economic History, Natural History, Comparative Studies in Society and History; various edited volumes on Humanitarian Assistance, Latin America and Southeast Asia.